

THIS HOUSE IS YOUR HOUSE

The Woody Guthrie Childhood Home Reconstruction Project

Below is an ever-evolving list of items and personnel that will be crucial to completely this project. This is a great chance to help an important and exciting cause. Not only will you be helping to reconstruct the childhood home of American legend Woody Guthrie, but all items donated will be tax-deductible. In addition to being listed as a primary sponsor in all of our marketing materials, your name will appear on a permanent, public plaque thanking each and every person who helped make this project such a success. Please review the list below and let us know if you will be able to help us in any way. Remember, this list will constantly be updated, so please check back often and items will be continually added throughout the project process.
